

UPDATE: September 4th, 2020

Panama City Beach - Effective Sept 8th the mandatory mask mandate for Panama City Beach will expire.

Please Note:

We will no longer require patients to wear a face mask, but we will still encourage and request it.

Our staff will still wear face masks when in contact with a patient, or when unable to adhere to 6 foot social distance rule.

Thank you.